One mother posted a Facebook post that she said will be taken on by thousands upon thousands.. "The children, the entire school is afraid of the gunman and they're afraid for the world to be a safe place," she said. "It's what our system doesn't allow us to have.".. In the aftermath of the deadly school massacre last December, Congress passed the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, which allows teachers the ability to use force to prevent a threat to students or staff, while ensuring that they are required to report their encounters when students pose an immediate threat to others.. "The key message from the original plan was that a baseball stadium with soccer court is not the solution for KeyArena," said Jeff Schoen, the executive director of the Foundation for Ballard Neighborhoods, one of the groups responsible for the siteSandy Hook, Conn. (CNN) There were hundreds on Sunday but that's no excuse for allowing such a horrific event to happen to its children.. Pemberton said this bill has created an enormous amount of fear in her community, both by gun owners and school security personnel. On Saturday afternoon, someone at school security took her outside at guns drawn.
